

A Campus of the University of Wisconsin Colleges

UW-Colleges Women’s Studies Certificate Worksheet

The Women’s Studies Certificate will give you a focus on issues concerning women and gender in a variety of academic areas. The courses analyze the contributions and importance of women in the development of human societies and bodies of knowledge, and the errors of omission in traditional academics.

Coursework in Women’s Studies provides you with important background preparation to work in counseling, business, communications, public and community service, advocacy work, law, public health, and non-profit service. Careers may include domestic abuse or welfare rights advocacy, family counseling, sexual assault counseling, health care, human resources, and public relations.

Requirements: The Women’s Studies Certificate program consists of a cluster of credit courses that are a part of the regular curriculum offered in the University of Wisconsin Colleges. A grade of “C” or better is required for all courses in the program. Up to three credits can be transferred from other colleges.

Completion of the certificate will require a minimum of 15 credits. Credits for the certificate must include:
