

Bathroom Reader

Volume 8, Issue 2

September 16-30, 2007

Some Bullets are Good!

The Science Tracer Bullets Online from the Library of Congress are a great start to writing a paper on topic that range from computer crime to alternative fuels, from dinosaurs to sports medicine, and from vitamins to invasive species. Check out the web site for more ideas at

<http://www.loc.gov/rr/scitech/tracer-bullets/tbs.html>

Deaf Awareness Week Sept 23-29

According to the National Institutes for Health, nearly 28 million Americans have a hearing impairment. Nearly 3 of 1,000 children are born deaf and are born to parents who can hear. The causes are noise, aging, disease and heredity, and hearing loss is greater in men.

Maybe it's time to turn down the volume!

Wisconsin Trivia

In 1882, the first hydroelectric plant was built on the Fox River.

There are 7,446 streams and rivers in Wisconsin. An end-to-end stretch would be 26,767 miles, enough to stretch around the world.

Marshfield is the geographic center of the state and is known as "Hub City."

Green Bay is the state's oldest city.

Banned Books Week

September 29-October 6, 2007

What is the most cited book for 2006?

According to the American Library Association, the book is "Tango Makes Three" by Justin Richardson and Peter Parnell about two male penguins parenting an egg from a mixed-sex couple.

There were 546 challenges last year on banned books. To see the complete list, go to www.ala.org and search for "banned books."

Singles Week — Sept 23-30

According to the US Census there are approximately, 60 million men and women between the ages of 20 and 34. 56% of the men and 47% of the women have never been married.

College Graduates

About 28% of the US population has a bachelor's degree according to the Department of Education. Congratulations to you for making the decision to pursue higher education. Good Luck in the coming year. If you have questions or need help the staff and faculty are available.